Internet and Web Technology

Assignment-1

Q.1) Write a JavaScript function that changes the background color of an element when a mouse enters it.

Q.2) Write a JavaScript program that implements a "form" validation that displays an error message if a required field is left empty when submitting the form.

Q.3) Write a JavaScript program to create a slideshow that changes the displayed image when a next or previous button is clicked.

Q.4) What is the TCP/IP model? Explain the role of each layer in networking.

Q.5) Describe CSS background properties with one example.

Q.6) What is the difference between frame and iframe? Explain with one example.